About the Work

Jonathan Larson, musical theatre composer and lyricist primarily known for writing the worldwide phenomenon musical Rent, also wrote a one-man show Tick, Tick…Boom! This a cappella song was cut from the original off-Broadway production but found its way back when the musical was made into a Netflix movie directed by Lin-Manuel Miranda. The playfulness of the lyrics is accompanied by an ostinato handclap. Each voice part gets an opportunity with the melody, and intertaction between members of the choir is highly encouraged. Have fun with this arrangement!

About the Arranger

Mr. Christopher Alexander is an award-winning composer and arranger from St. Joseph, Missouri. He received his Bachelor of Science in Vocal Music Education degree from Missouri Western State University in 2009. A self-taught pianist, his compositions and arrangements ranging from instrumental works to vocal solo and choral literature. Mr. Alexander has been commissioned numerous times by singing groups and church choirs within the northwest Missouri and northeast Kansas regions. He is also active in musical theatre productions as a music director and pianist. His works have been published with GIA Music Publications and Hal Leonard.

In 2016, he was awarded the St. Joseph Allied Arts Council Mayor's Award for Artist of the Year. In 2022, he was inducted into the New Generation Singers Hall of Fame.

Mr. Alexander currently serves as the pianist and primary arranger for The New Generation Singers, a Christian singing youth group based in St. Joseph, Missouri. He is a member of NAfME, ACDA, MCDA, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity.

He is available for commissions and conducting events on request.
